

ON OUR WAY THROUGH LIFE,
ALONG THE ROAD
WE SEE MANY KINDS OF PEOPLE —
Their faces

laughing

watching

angered

surprised

lonely

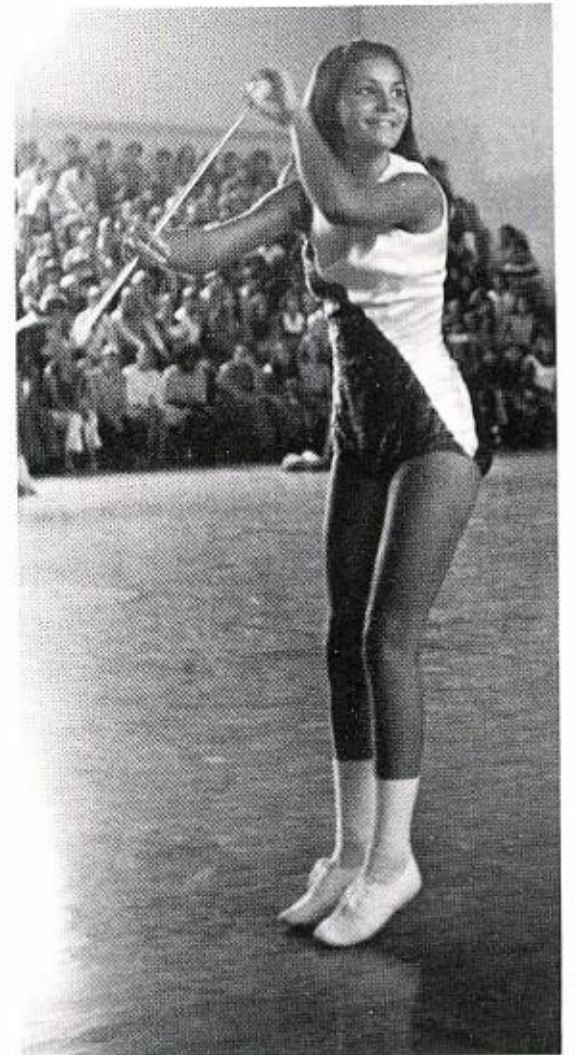

peaceful

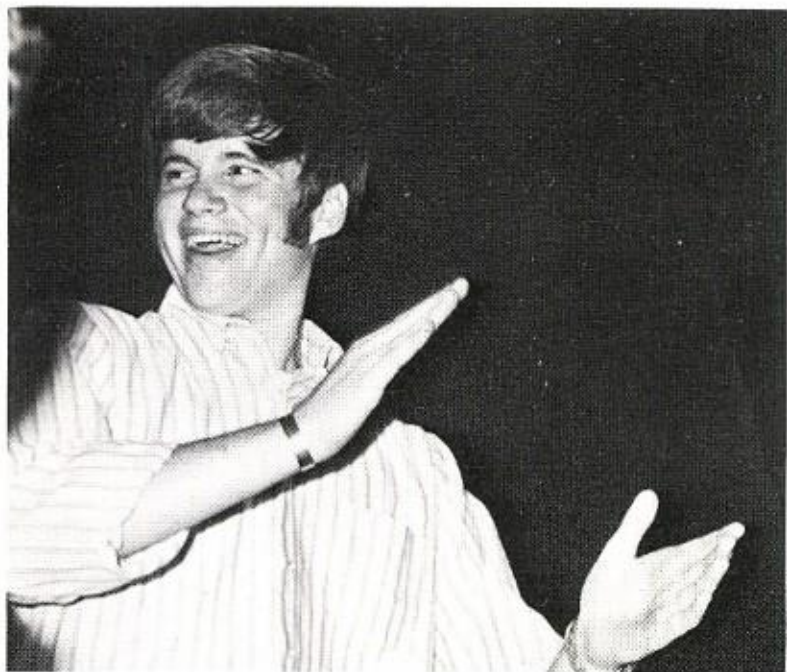

thinking

grieving

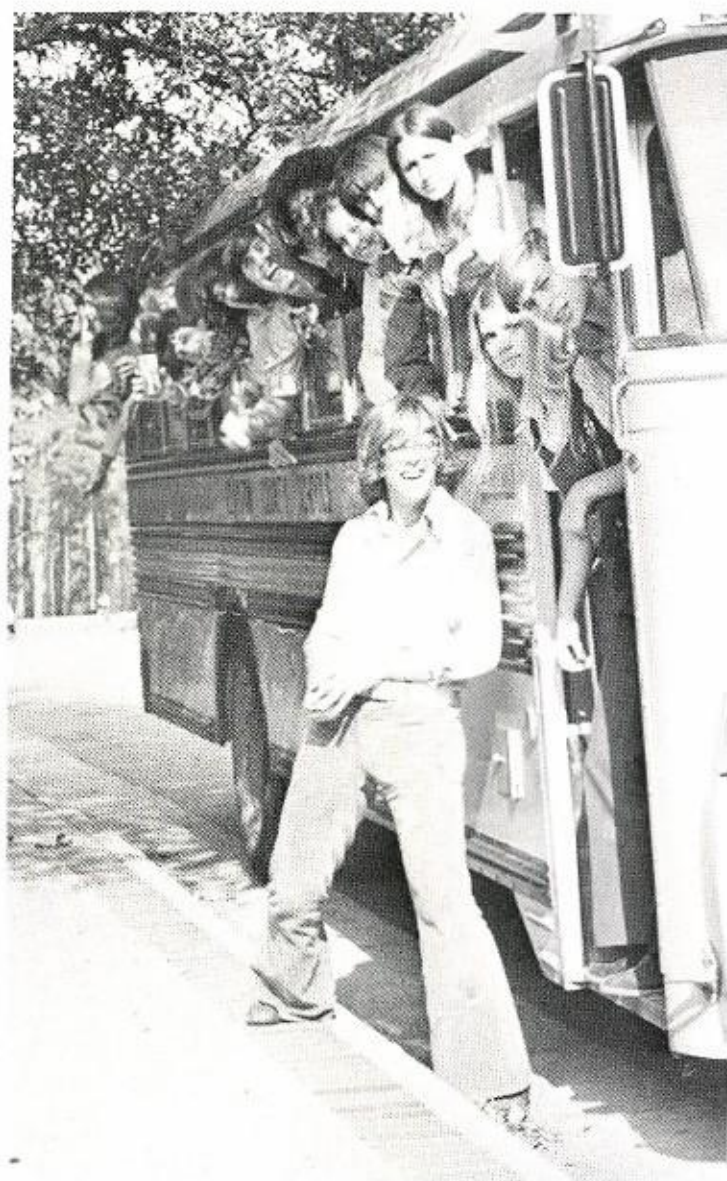

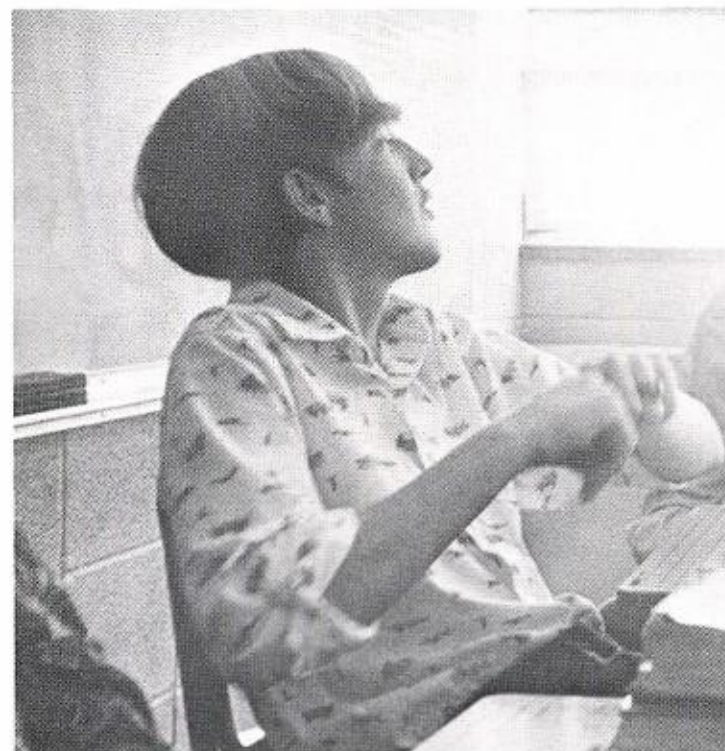

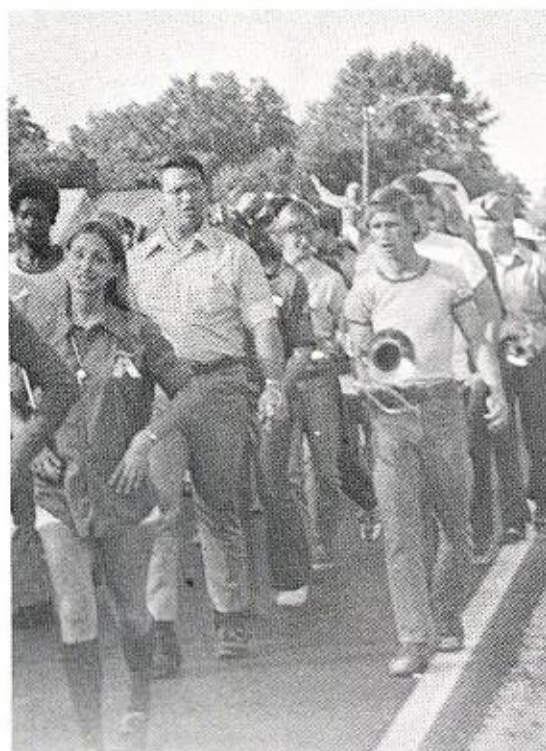

A smile is a curve
that straightens out things.

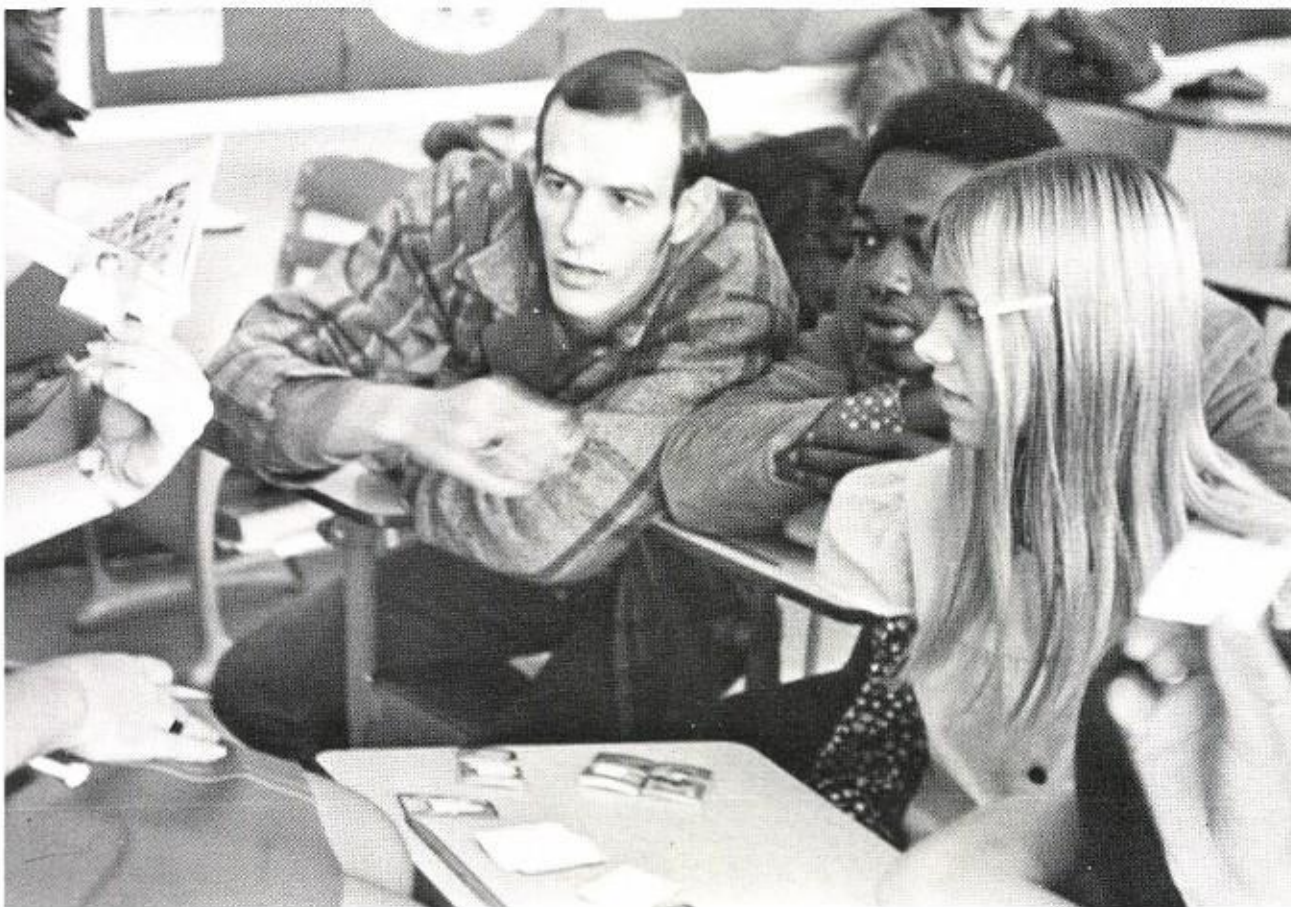

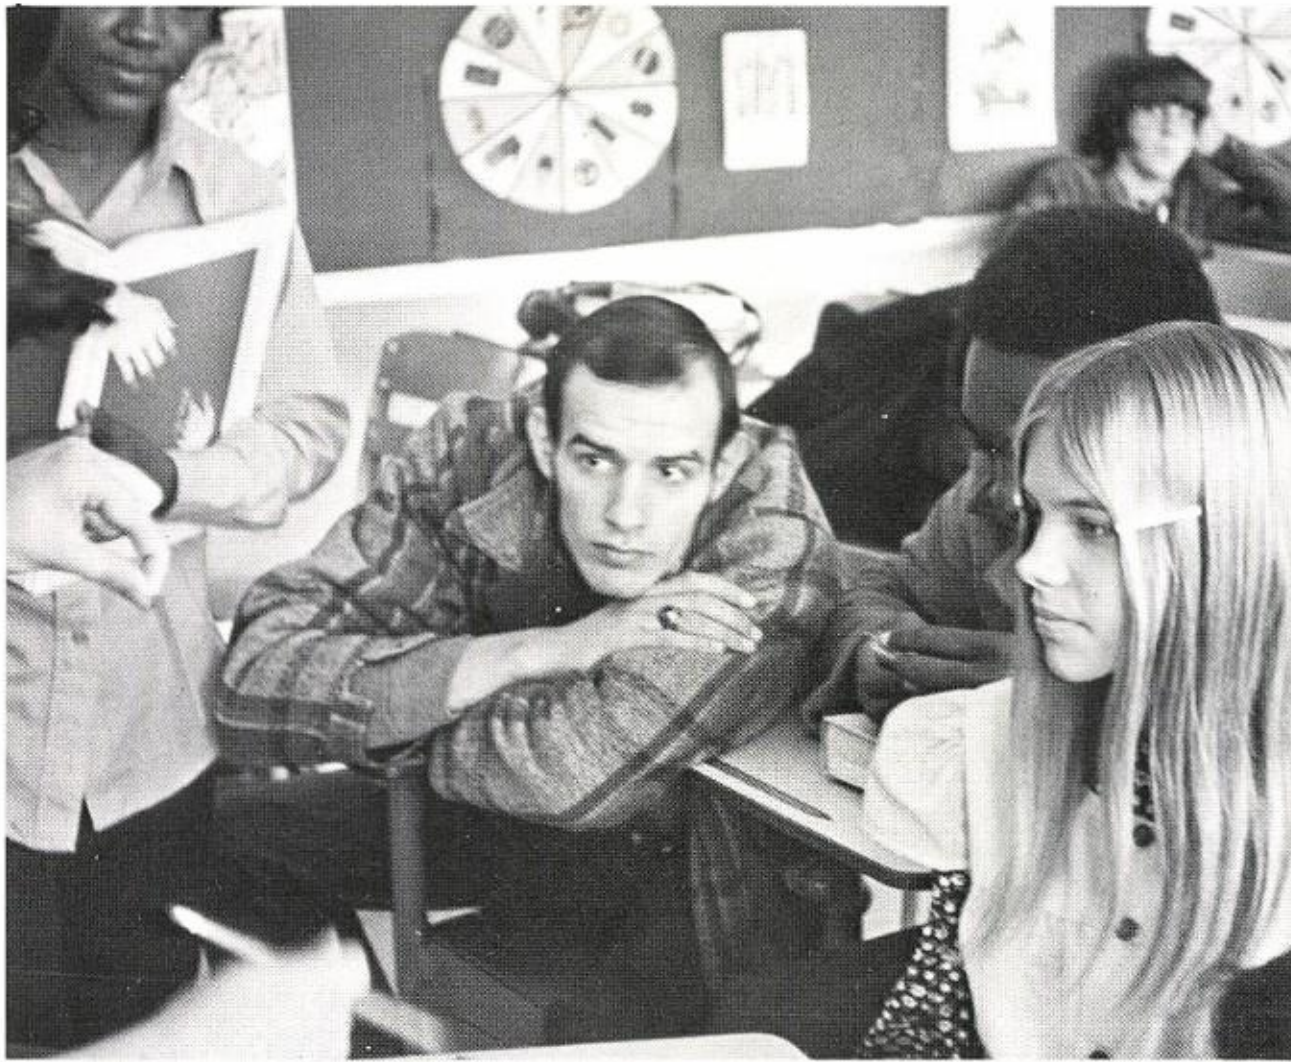

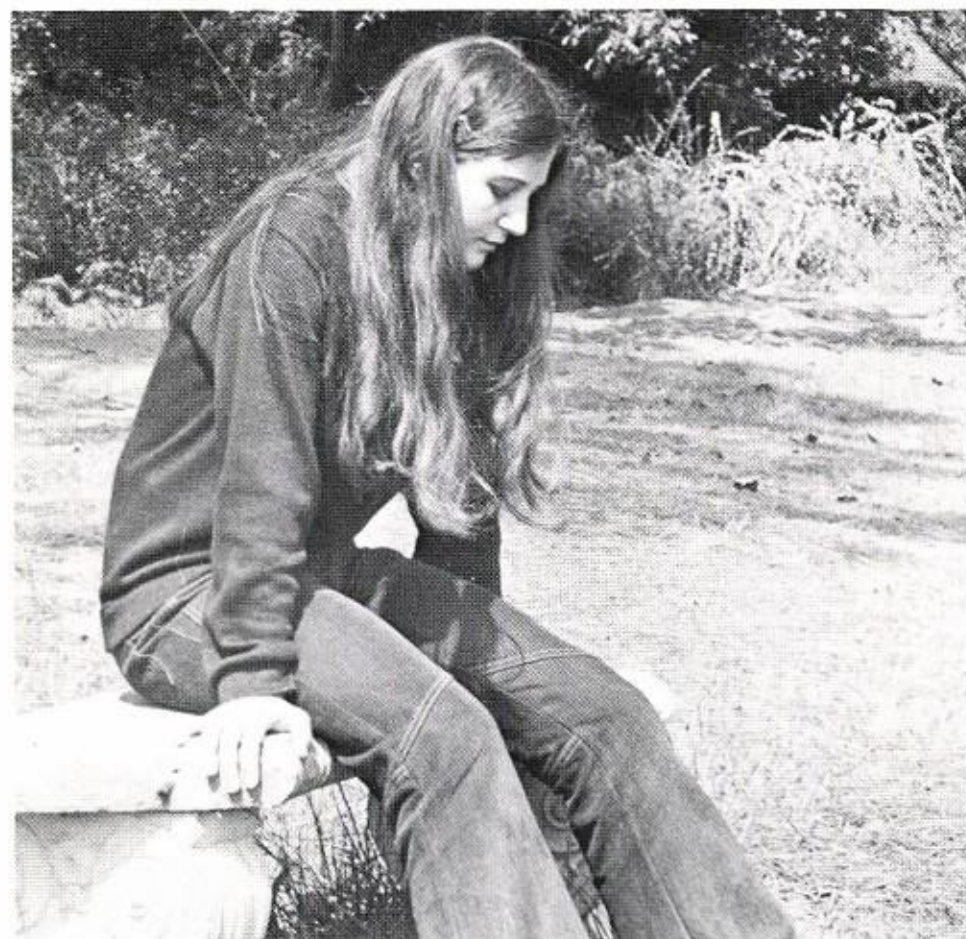

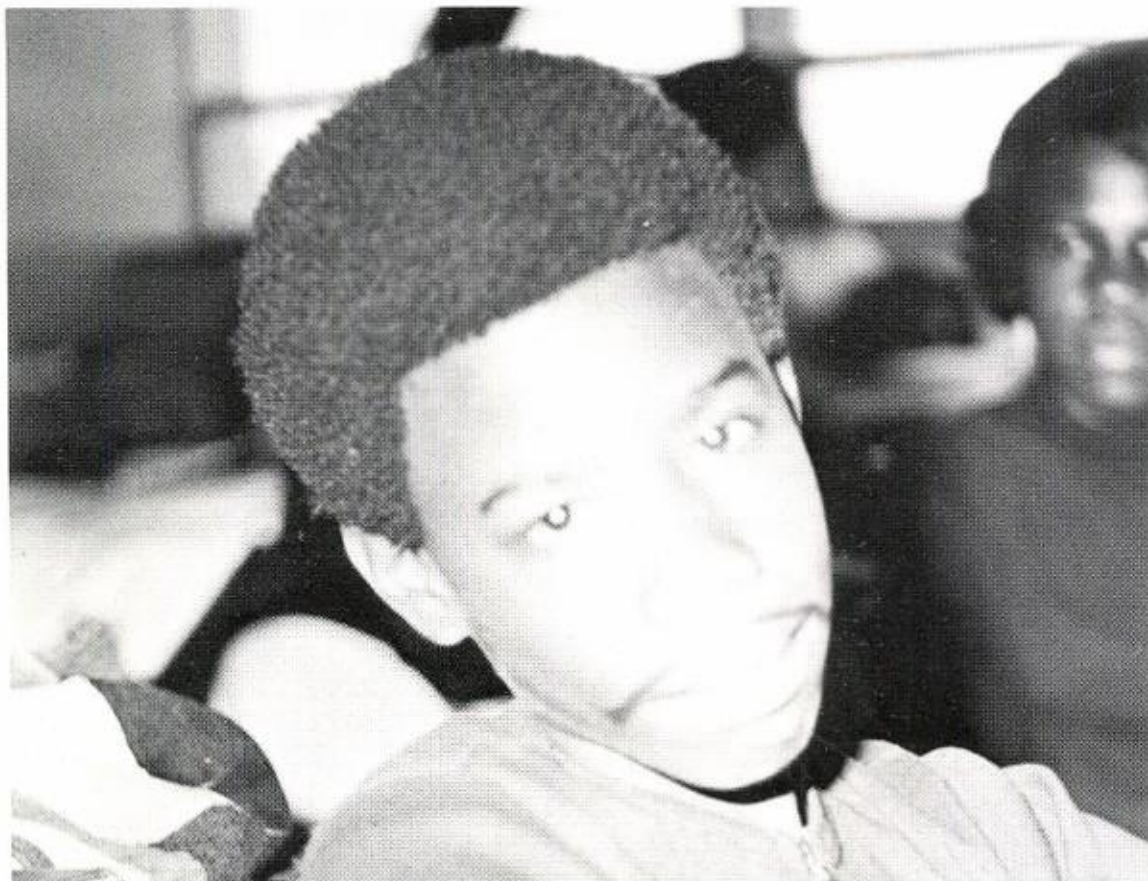

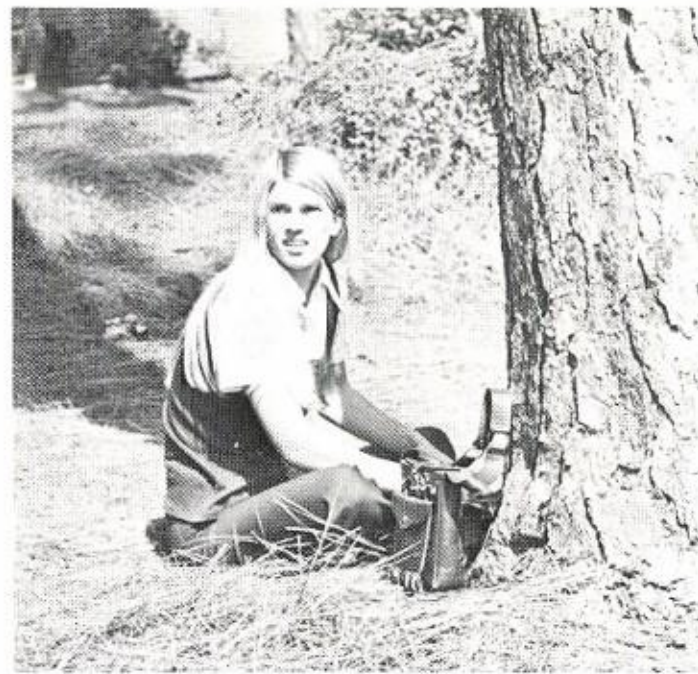

Everyone smiles in the same language.

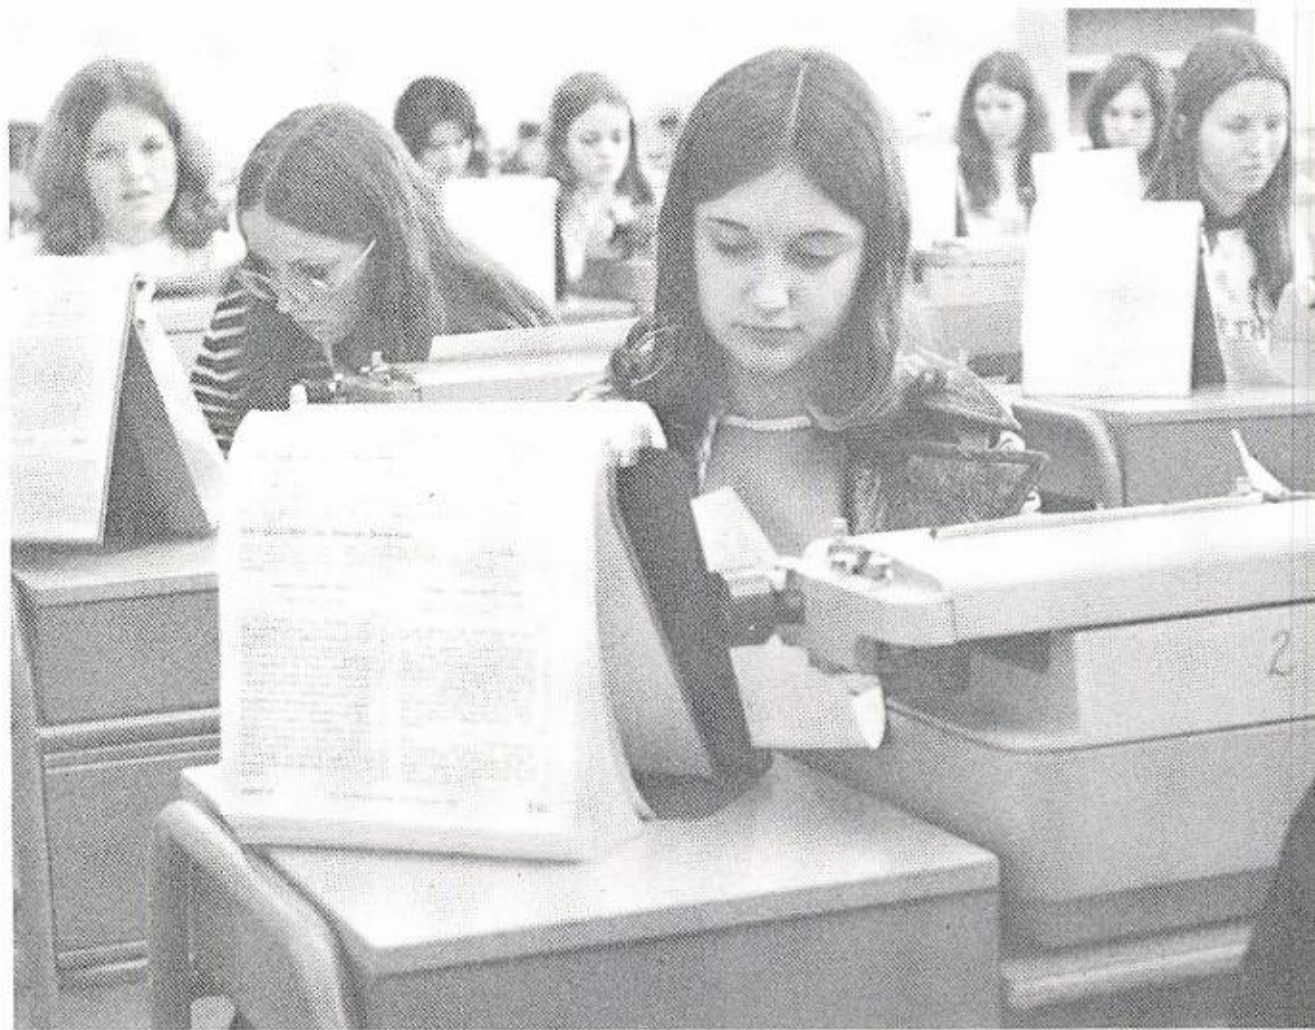

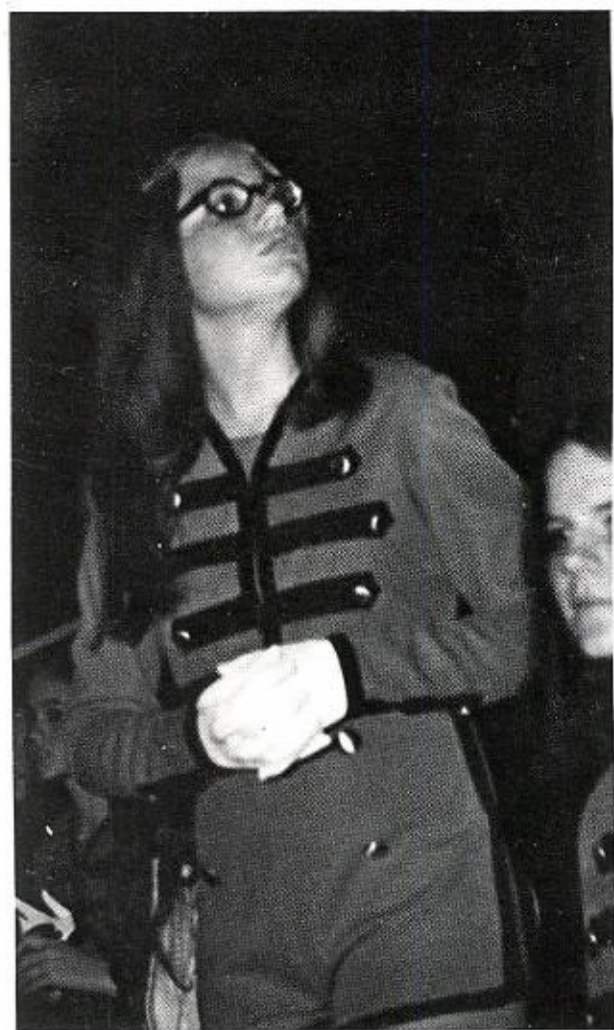

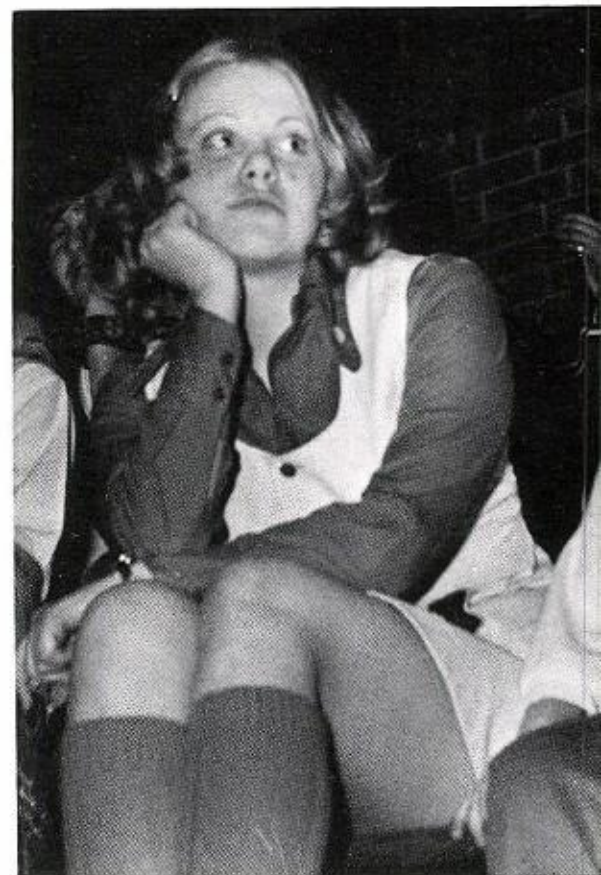

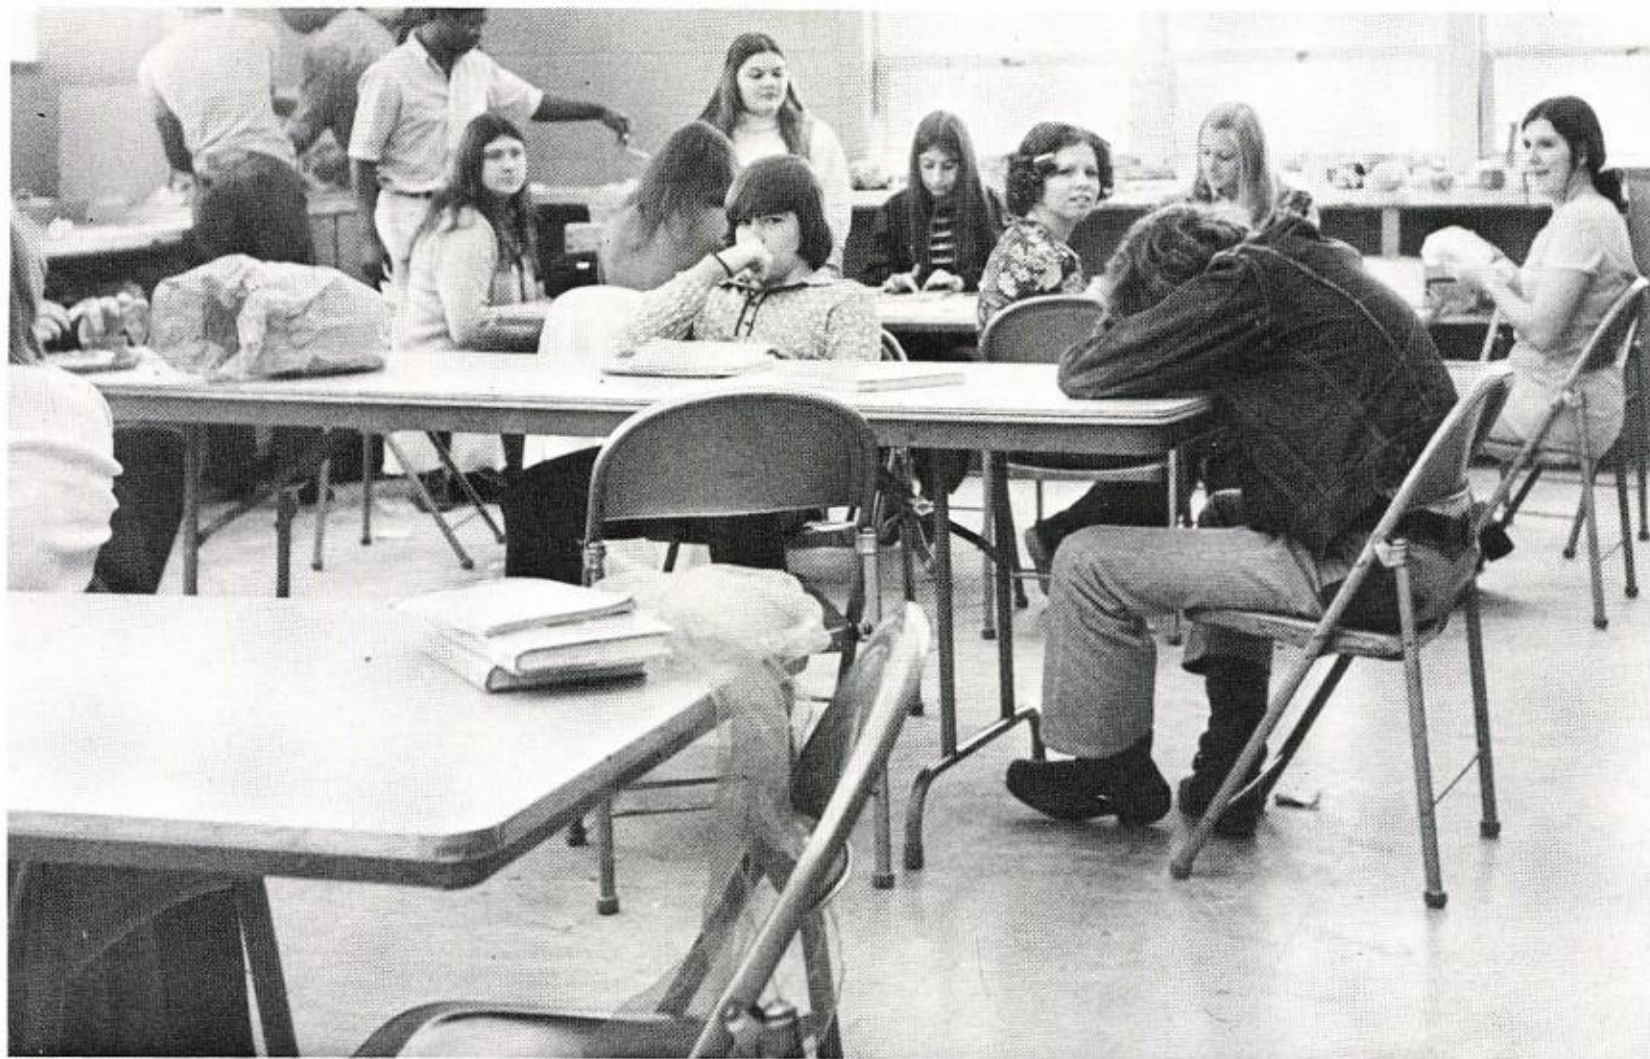

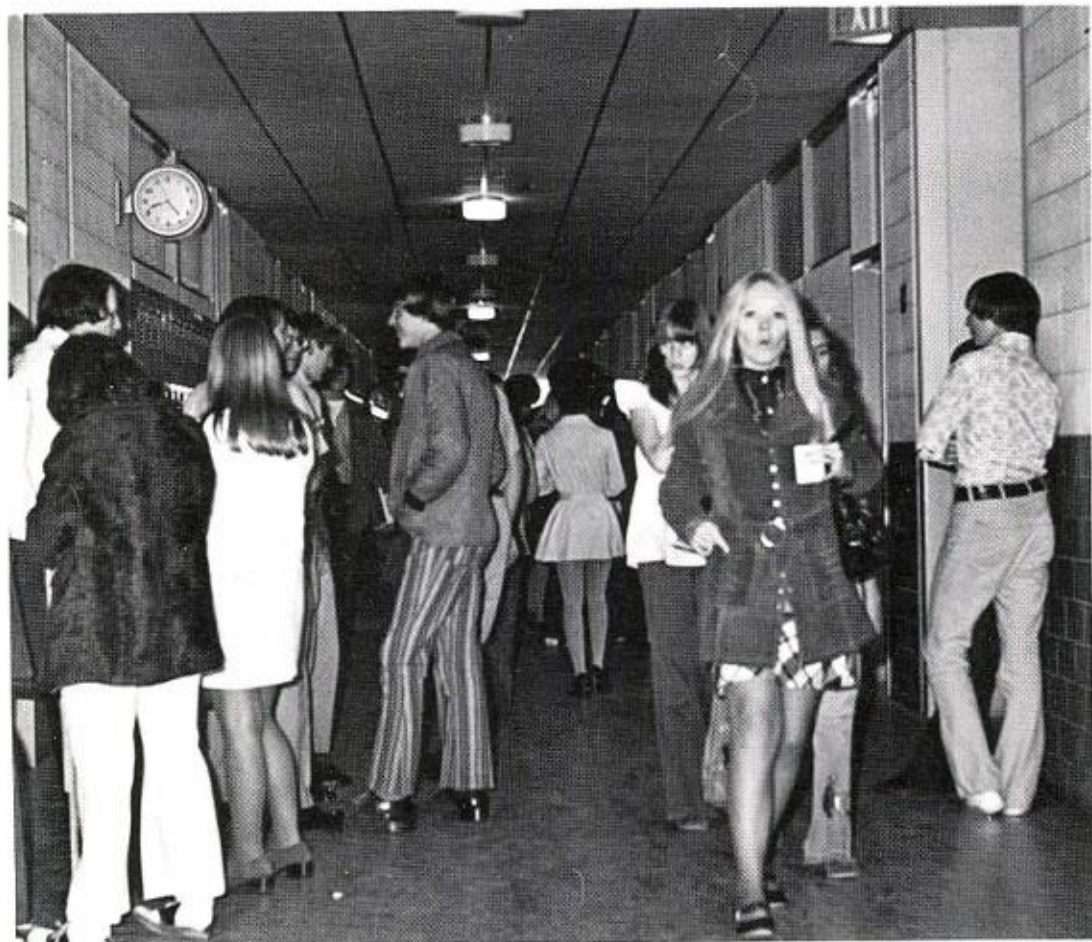

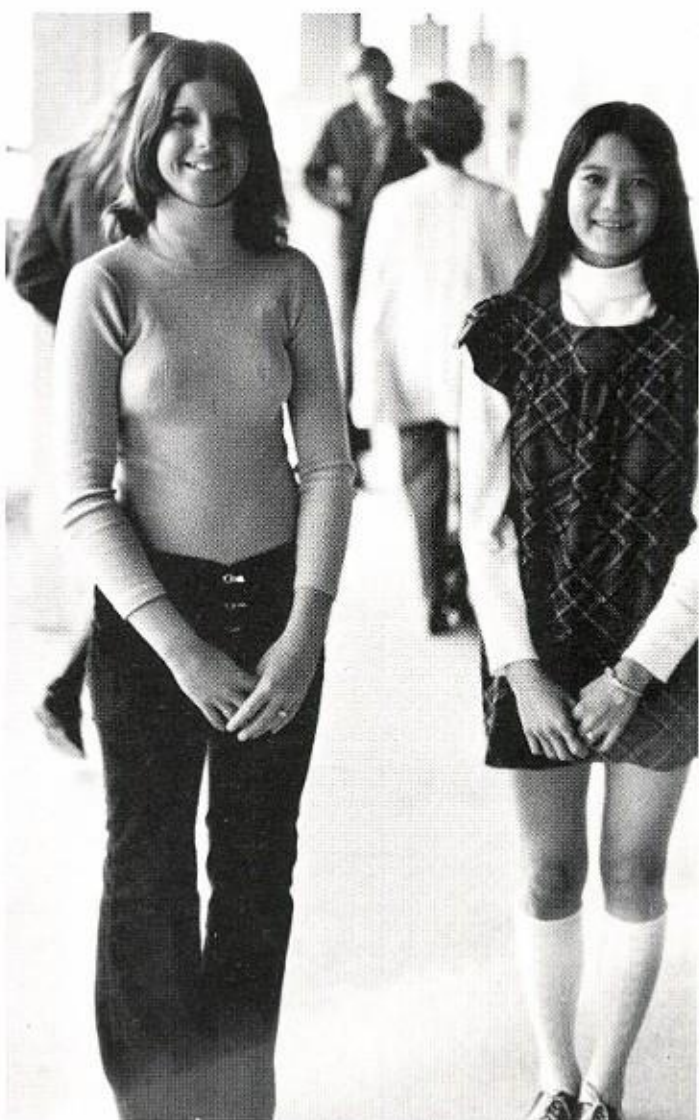

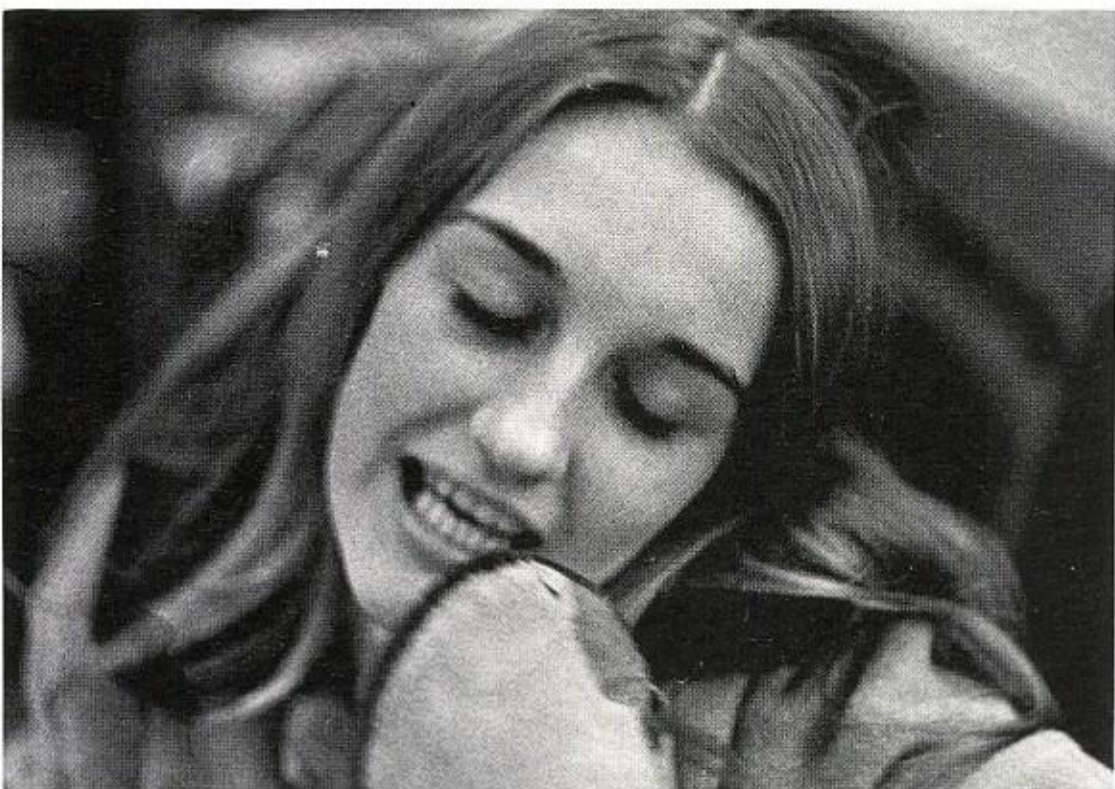

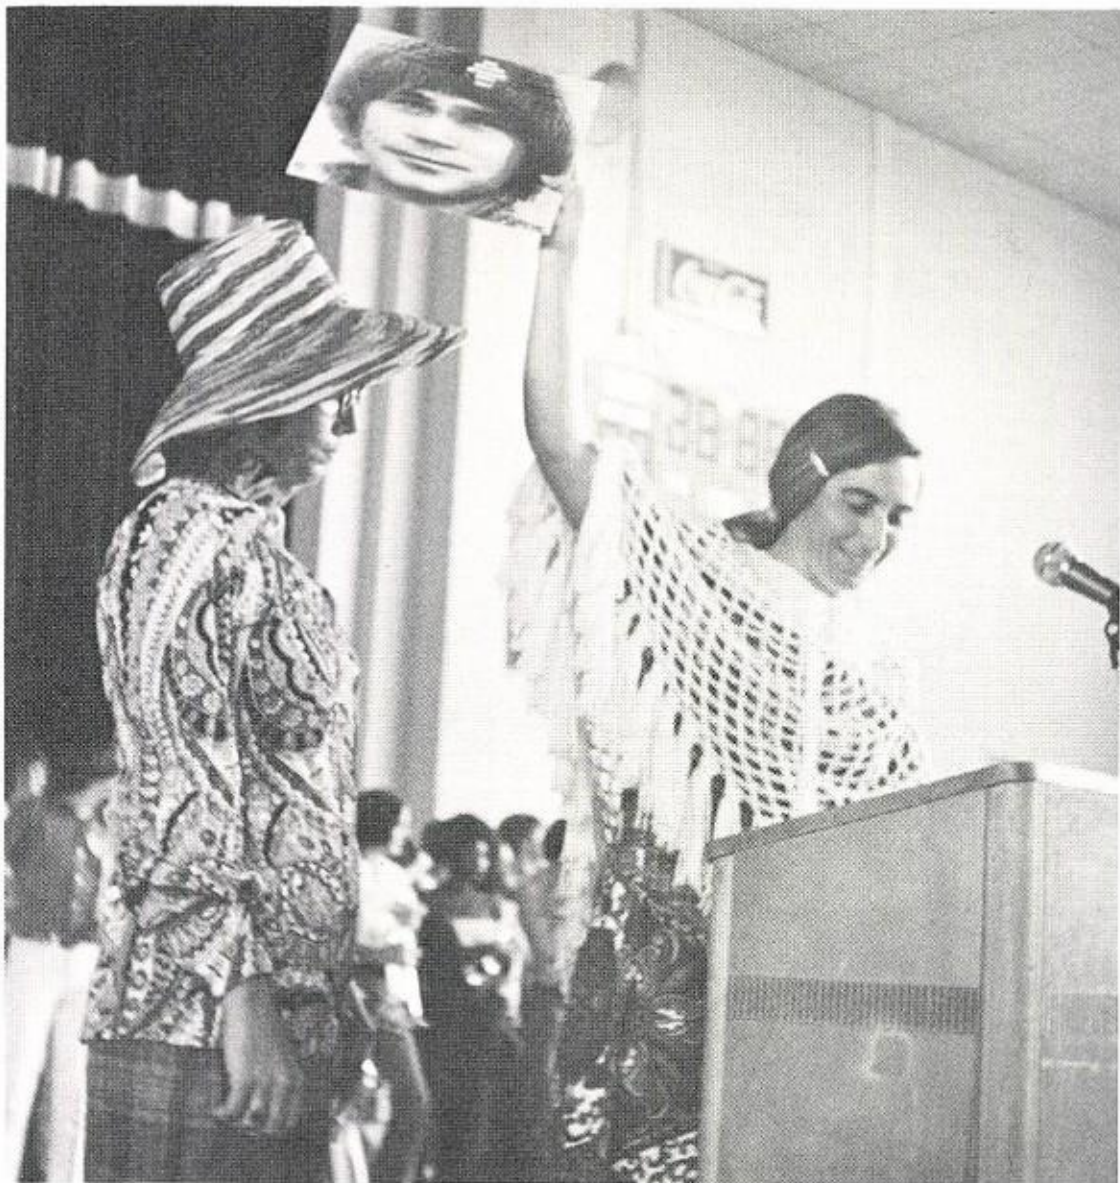

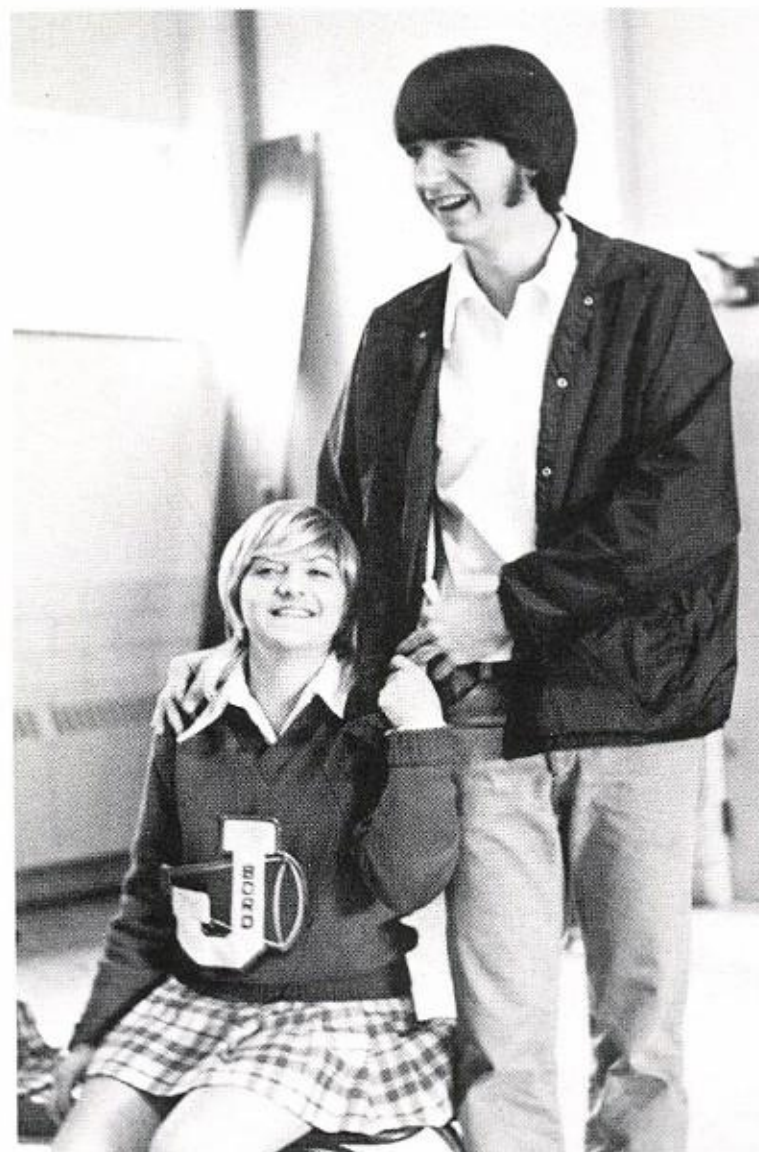

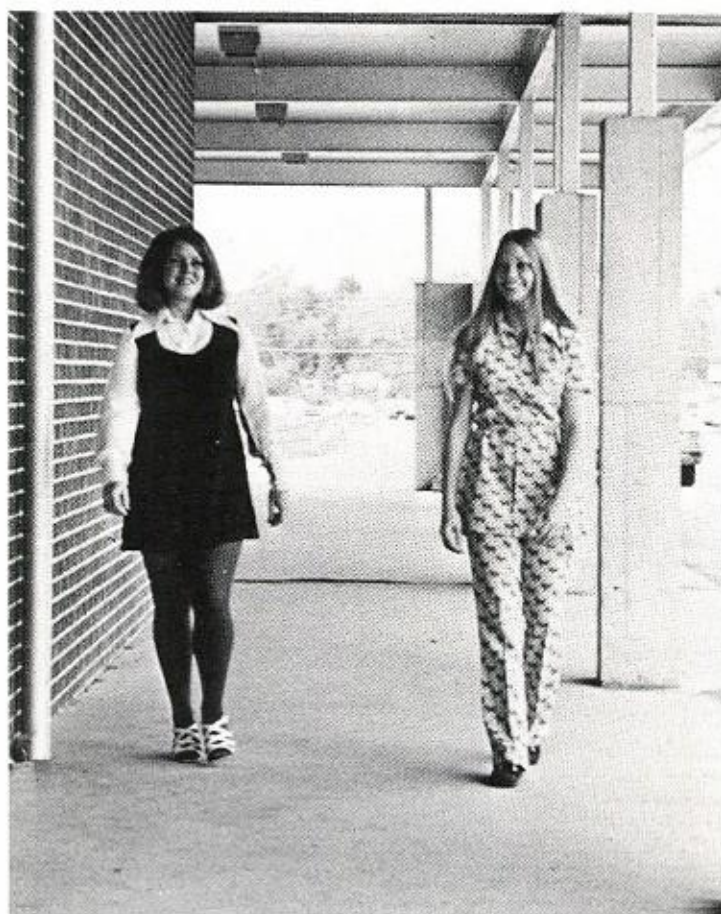

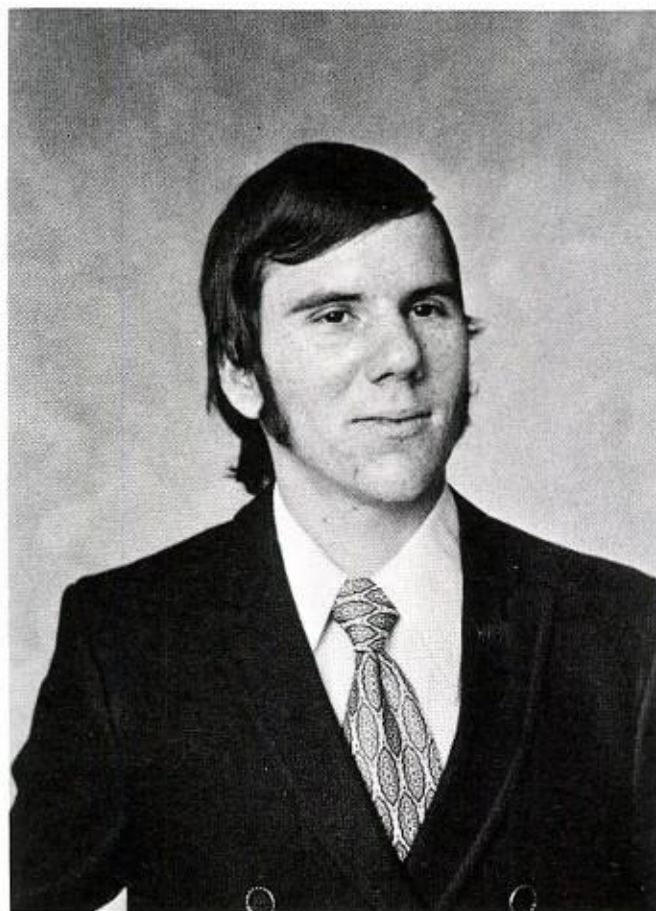

The first snowfall -
real or thought up,
the brown leaves of October -
if I notice them,
is proof enough that I am Happy.

A long road to go
A year missed
But remembered
Not here
Thought about
And
Anticipating his return.

TRAVELOGUE

at first the road seems full of holes and too difficult.

BORO FOOTBALL

A grainy, black and white photograph of a football field. In the background, a scoreboard is visible, showing the word "Coca-Cola" and some numbers. The field is covered in grass, and there are some dark spots that might be players or equipment. The overall image quality is poor, with high contrast and significant noise.

Student Council

A large, dense collage of black and white photographs featuring students in various settings, including portraits, group shots, and candid moments. The collage is titled "P.H.R. INC." in large, handwritten letters at the top center. Several photos show students holding signs with the P.H.R. logo and text like "P.H.R. INC." and "EZ MAUL". The photos are arranged in a chaotic, overlapping manner, creating a sense of a busy, active organization.

Time does not pass —
it is motionless
it is we who pass
upon its surface
as ships that sail upon the sea
from harbor to harbor
and after a little rest embark upon another voyage.

Winston O. Abbott

With these words begins another section of this yearbook. Many things have happened in this world in the past year that have affected us. Here are just a few of the more memorable ones.

"Let me remember
beyond forgetting —
let me remember . . .

These words of Winston Abbott describe my feelings perfectly — my feelings about this year's annual; this year in general; Jonesboro Senior High; and most of all the people who have made all these things worth remembering. The Annual Staff this year has worked very hard to give you, the students, an annual composed of things that you will remember. We think we've done a good job. However, this goal could not have been achieved without the following people's help: students — Charles Walker, Debbie Little, Ted White, Ruth Fisher, Dennis Wiggins, and Gary Rodgers; the teachers who served on the Who's Who Committee and the teachers who put up with us during 6th period, especially Mrs. Westmoreland; Tony Kimbrell and Denise Davis for their advice; David Fickle, Judy Kimbrell, and Tony May for developing pictures for us; the secretaries in the office for their cooperation during all our phone calls; Southeastern School Studios for all the 'rush jobs' that they did; our representative from Hunter Publishing Company, Mr. Bill Wolfe and John James who assisted him; Mr. Smith for his understanding cooperation and most of all I would like to extend a personal Thank You to Miss Acree and my staff for making this year worth remembering.

Lori Arnold

choose life
only that and always
and at whatever risk.

to let life leak out
to let it wear away
by the mere passage of time to withhold giving it and spending it is to choose nothing . . .
Kelley

Shirley Swint

You will choose the road you follow in life. You may choose one of the popular, high speed freeways, where the risks are high, but where you can accomplish a lot in a short period of time. Or maybe you would rather follow a smooth, curving highway which takes you through the small towns and cities with their friendly atmospheres. Perhaps you will choose a rough and narrow backroad where you can enjoy the quiet solitude of the country. If you like, you can hike through the forests on a narrow, rocky trail where you must be cautious, but where you can be close to nature. The kind of road you take in life is important, but not as important as how you are prepared to meet life along that kind of road. Know what is ahead and prepare yourself. The choice is yours . . .

I cannot teach you, though the years
Have led me farther on Along the path of life than you
In your short span have gone.

I can but lead you to the threshold
Of your thinking mind,
And leave you there to search the worth
Of such as you may find.

I can but point the way, then you Must trudge your road alone;
The crossroads you will meet will not be
Those that I have known.

I cannot teach you, I can only
Take you by the hand
And lead you to the point where you Can see the Promised Land.

The rest of it is up to you,
The choice is yours to make—
And I can only pray that 'tis
The right road you will take.

Helen Lowrie Marshall
